Indoor Farmers Market

Starting in November, the Maple Grove Farmers Market is open from 3 to 6 p.m. inside the Community Center these select Thursdays:

2016: November 3 & 17 December 1 & 15

2017: January 12, February 9, March 9, April 13

With 20+ vendors, enjoy a wonderful array of vendor grown/produced items through the year—seasonal produce; breads; farmstead meats, eggs, cheese; canned goods, syrups, sauces, baked goods, and many more specialty foods!

Live music adds to the festive spirit as the fresh food and fun continue indoors.

Credit/Debit/EBT Accepted

The Maple Grove Farmers Market is pleased to offer shoppers the convenience of using their credit/debit and EBT cards.

- Stop by the Market Info Trailer.
- Buy market tokens with your card.
($5 for credit/debit; $1 for EBT)
- Make your purchases with market vendors.

Credit/debit tokens are just like cash and good for any products/all vendors.

EBT tokens are good at marked vendor booths. Eligible items include: fruits, vegetables, plants that produce food, meat, poultry, dairy, maple/honey products, breads, jams, sauces, baked goods—wrapped, labeled and intended for home consumption.

Sponsors

Farmers Market sponsors go a long way to making all the fresh food and fun possible. We invite our local business and healthcare community to share in the Market's mission of supporting healthy living, local agriculture and community outreach. Please visit the Market's website to view our current sponsors.

Putting Fun in Fresh Food Shopping

In its 13th year, the Maple Grove Farmers Market is a highly anticipated tradition in the community and northwest metro area.

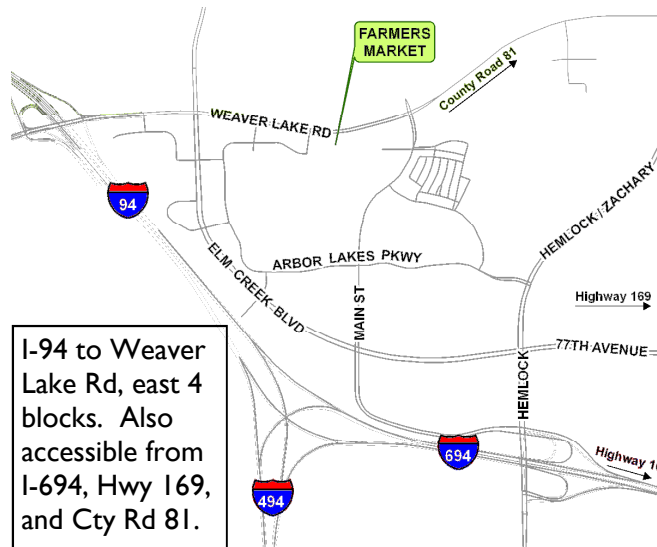

Shop from vendors offering a wide variety of their own homegrown produce, farmstead products and specialty items as well as ready to eat foods. Not only will you get to know the vendors who provide the very best in fresh, local foods, your trips to the market during the season will include:

Free recipes • Live music weekly
Frequent shopper program
PoP Kids Program • Seasonal events
Onsite playground • Free parking
